SYNOPSIS

After a long and tedious experiment, an ambitious scientist, Dr. Butler wants to control the behavior of man with his computer. Through the Ultra Energy he has discovered, he turns the world's computer network into a mess.

Many countries finally aware of the seriousness the computer has caused. They call for a world meeting. Dr. Kim, Sheila and Keith are in charge of the case.

Through a series of investigations and the understanding of their crazy comrade, they finally track down Butler's attempt. However, beating up Butler is not an easy job.

With the help of another electronic world, Anne, Keith is able to escape from the "Death Game". Man finally comes out of the hands of the computer maniac.
